

Snack Club Devotion – November

Read: Luke 6:20-23

²⁰ Looking at his disciples, he said:

“Blessed are you who are poor,
for yours is the kingdom of God.

²¹ Blessed are you who hunger now,
for you will be satisfied.

Blessed are you who weep now,
for you will laugh.

²² Blessed are you when people hate you,
when they exclude you and insult you
and reject your name as evil, because of the Son of Man.

²³ “Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, because great is your reward in heaven. For that is how their ancestors treated the prophets.

Devotional Thoughts: November begins with All Saints Day. In worship, we remember and give thanks for all the saints “who from their labors rest,” who have fought the good fight, who have gained the crown. In the same breath we petition God for the strength to continue on in our earthly pilgrimage, living lives worthy of the Gospel. Take time and consider the example of your “Saints of Light” who encouraged your faith and whose witness gives you strength even now.

Pray: Almighty God, you have knit your people together in one communion in the mystical body of your Son, Jesus Christ. Grant us grace to follow your blessed saints in lives of faith and commitment, and to know the inexpressible joys you have prepared for those who love you. Amen.
