Pastor Candice

Grace & Peace to you!

This summer I have the joy of taking eleven of our high school youth on a mission trip to Indianapolis, July 5–10. Opportunities like this don't come around often for me, and I am genuinely excited to step into this role. While we continue to wait and pray for the right Youth and Family Pastor to join our ministry team, the privilege of leading this trip has fallen to me and I am grateful for it. Walking alongside our young people as they serve, learn, and grow in faith is one of the most life-giving parts of ministry.

I won't be doing this alone. Stephanie Williams will be joining us as our adult chaperone, bringing her steady presence, good humor, and deep care for our kids. Together, we'll be guiding the group through a week of service, worship, and community building.

We will be partnering with YouthWorks, a long-standing Christian mission organization that creates meaningful service experiences for youth groups across the country. YouthWorks connects congregations with local ministries and nonprofits, ensuring that our work supports the ongoing efforts of community leaders already doing faithful, effective work. Their model emphasizes relationship-building, cultural humility, and hands-on service, all grounded in daily worship and reflection. It's a wonderful fit for our youth and for the kind of servant-hearted discipleship we hope to nurture at Faith.

As we prepare for this week of service, I ask you to hold our youth in prayer. They are: Alex, Claire, Evan, Grace, Henry, Nicholas, Noah, Ollie, Sydney, Teddy, and William. Pray they travel safely, serve joyfully, and encounter Christ in the people they meet. And please remember Stephanie and me in your prayers as well, that we may guide with wisdom, patience, and a spirit of grace.

Thank you for supporting our young people and for being a congregation that believes in forming disciples through service. I look forward to sharing stories and photos when we return!

Peace & joy,

Pastor Candice Wassell

Seasons for Serving

I recently had a conversation with a friend, who spoke to me about seasons for serving at church. I thought this dovetailed nicely with Pastor Candice's sermon series on "Following Wherever You Are: Leadership At Home, At Work and At Church". I'm going to focus on the "location" portion of "At Work" in sermon #2.

When I hear the words "At Work", I initially thought of what I did for a living, what my vocation or career was. I had to arrive on time, get along with colleagues, do my assigned tasks, report to my supervisor, etc. This was a good career for me, as I respected the people I worked with and enjoyed my work immensely. This career work is now in my past – so what does "work" mean to me now?

I volunteer a lot because this gives my life meaning. I began volunteering because I couldn't pledge much when I first started a family. When I retired, I left my money-earning career, but this doesn't mean I became a lump on the couch to fade away. Volunteering grows my faith and makes me feel valuable and useful. I feel I've accomplished something. The following is not bragging but describing my seasons of serving as I matured and learned new skills.

I was a third grade Sunday School teacher for a year at a former church. This season ended after that first year. I found I do not have the temperament nor creativity to be a teacher.

When I joined Faith Lutheran, I joined the choir and found my first niche. A year or two later the Praise Band stood up and a third service began. The director asked for singers and musicians to join, and I felt called to sing with the group, because the group was so small at first and the music was new and fun. I never expected to begin leading songs and singing solos in front of the entire congregation, but in pushing myself to try this, I found I was no longer afraid to stand up at work to provide briefings and lead meetings. This was a singing and self-confidence growth season for me.

Pastor Holm invited me to help with Confirmation small groups; he said he saw me as an organized person. (When a pastor directly asks you for support, you really take it to heart.) I worked with a small group for one year, then helped to organize the weekly meetings, snacks, and curriculum for six more years. This connection with the youth led me to participate in youth mission trips and even lead a mission trip when the youth director was unable to go. That was my season of active participation with the youth.

As my confidence grew through service at church, my confidence at work grew along with it. I was asked to be on special teams and work in different areas and eventually I became a supervisor, all of which led me to being brave enough to become church president – there was a need and I stepped in to serve. I've served on several boards and again am church president. Another season of my faith life.

As seasons change and we mature as adults and in our own faith, opportunities to serve open for us all the time. One always has time to serve when one's heart is caught up in their faith. Serving usually fits the season we are in, grows our skills and gives back good life experiences. Serving grows our faith in Jesus Christ, grows our community through working with others with similar faith-values, and grows our self-confidence.

What is your current season? Where can you serve?

In Christ,

July is here! How can this be? We are now in the dog days of summer – hot and humid, yet perfect for a little rest, relaxation, and rejuvenation! I hope you are finding some time for the three Rs of summer!
As I encourage you to enjoy some time with the three Rs, that doesn't mean there aren't things happening around Faith that you will want to be in-the-know on!

Please keep Pastor Candice, Stephanie Williams, and all the high school youth out on a mission trip during the week of July 5-10 in your prayers! I am sure they will nourish minds, bodies, and spirits on this trip and will grow through their service.

Have you had an opportunity to help out with Grill to Glory yet this summer? If not, July may be the perfect month to do that. Grill to Glory will have another cook out on July 11th. Reach out to John Hellrung or let me know and I will get you connected.

I was fortunate to hang out for the June Family Wiffle Ball Sunday and had a great time. Bill does such an amazing job encouraging and helping the young people learn how to bat, throw, and play a team sport. He does a great job with the not so young as well. Such an encouraging spirit for all who attend. Look in this newsletter for some pictures of the great event and make sure you have July 12th at 4pm on your calendar for the next one!

Speaking of July 12th, we will have a Welcome Walk Through for those new to Faith between the services. This is an opportunity to meet a FEW people, grab some information on the Knowing Faith class and new member luncheon, and a special gift you will want to have for Reformation Sunday! If you have any questions regarding this event, please reach out to me.

God's peace,
Janet Hernandez

GRACE NOTES BAND

An Intergenerational Instrumental Ensemble for Beginning and Returning Musicians

---

Music Notes

As we move into July, I want to thank everyone who helped make our summer ministries a success. Between Vacation Bible School, Summer Camp, and the many volunteers who shared their time and talents, we have been blessed to see children grow in faith while learning about God's wonderful creation.

July brings a slightly quieter pace, but ministry continues in many ways. Our ensembles are preparing for fall, Grace Notes Band is making wonderful progress, and plans are already underway for the upcoming program year. Summer is often a season of travel, family gatherings, and a change of routine, but it is also a wonderful opportunity to notice God's presence in new places and new experiences.

One new event to look forward to this month is the introduction of Jukebox July! For four weeks, you'll have the chance to help choose the music for worship. Each week, a new online poll will be available featuring a variety of hymns and worship songs. Vote for your favorites, and the songs receiving the most votes will be included in the following Sunday's service. Think of it as a church version of a jukebox—except instead of dropping in a coin, you cast your vote! Polls will close at 8:00 a.m. on the Tuesday prior to each service to allow time for planning and preparation. Vote for the music for each Sunday:

· July 5 Worship Service: https://forms.gle/tSY2nXhjVVvpfPGm8
Voting closes Tuesday, June 30 at 8:00 a.m.
· July 12 Worship Service: https://forms.gle/NLoBXo5tL7QQv5Sq5
Voting closes Tuesday, July 7 at 8:00 a.m.
· July 19 Worship Service: https://forms.gle/b2ncLacZpPy5Rdp48
Voting closes Tuesday, July 14 at 8:00 a.m.
· July 26 Worship Service: https://forms.gle/75vu1nHUg57zrBiy6
Voting closes Tuesday, July 21 at 8:00 a.m.

Opportunities to Serve

· Organist & Choir Accompanist Needed We are searching for a new organist and choir accompanist. If you or someone you know may be interested, please contact Jeannie VanderKruik, Pastor Candice, or me.

· Multimedia Team Members Needed We're looking for additional volunteers to assist with slides, sound, and livestreaming. Training is provided!

· 10:30 Ushers Needed We would love to add a few more volunteers to our 10:30 a.m. usher team. Training is available.

We hope you'll join the fun and help shape our worship through song this summer. Whether your favorites are beloved hymns, contemporary worship songs, or somewhere in between, we'd love to hear your voice before we hear your singing voice on Sunday morning!

Whether you're traveling this summer or enjoying time close to home, I pray you find opportunities to rest, recharge, and experience God's blessings. I look forward to worshiping and making music with you throughout the summer.

Tune your heart to sing His praise,
Kristin Runyan

Adult Learning Program for 2026-27
By Jim Curtis

I am excited to provide you with an overview of the upcoming year's adult learning program. We have a plethora of diverse, interesting, and seldom discussed topics. Here is the program list for Sunday mornings:

- Women Heroes & Bad Girls of the Bible: And What We Can Learn From Them
- Amazing and Strange Events of the Bible
- The Bible:With and Without Jesus (How Jews and Christians view the same events)
- Understanding Misunderstood Scriptures and Adages
- Moses: God's Mightiest Prophet

One of this year's goals is to discuss the Old Testament's stories, prophets, and key leaders, and link the Bible's Law to the New Testament's Gospels so we can better understand what the New Testament means when the Apostles and early Christian leaders reference the Old Testament. We will start the year off with a 10-week presentation of Women Heroes & Bad Girls of the Bible: And What We Can Learn from Them. This will be a fun, eye-opening program discussing 18 of the Bible's most important women and how they were part of our religious story. More details on this program will be included in next month's article.

We are currently averaging about 25 adults in the Sunday morning program and welcome you to join us. We have a wonderful time learning, sharing our own personal stories, and joining together as we build our knowledge of God's people and Jesus' teachings. I encourage those of you who regularly attend the first service to consider coming to our program while your children are in Sunday School and then attending the late service together. And, for those of you who have a choice, if you make the change and get into the habit of joining us for the Adult Learning Hour, it becomes second-nature - you will be glad you did so.

I will close with a 'teaser.' On your calendars, please book the four Wednesday evenings in October for an evening adult learning event. We are going to offer a special evening program to help you navigate the difficult environment we are experiencing in today's secular world. More details soon.

Outward Ministry

Join us at our next Outward Ministry meeting on August 3rd at 6:45pm. Any questions, reach out to Erin O'Leary at Outward@faithofallon.org

The Outward Ministry Board carries out its mission under the theme "Nourishing Minds, Bodies, and Souls," serving as a vital bridge between our congregation and the surrounding community.

Planning & Development

The P&D Committee met on May 26, 2026. We reviewed the Phase 3 planning efforts, discussed some possible (minor) changes to the Financial Manager duties / position, Cyber Security concerns, and an open position on the Budget team. We will not meet in June, but will meet again on July 28, 2026.

P&D Chair

Phase 3 Update

During the past month, we have been working with our architect, FGMA, on the Programming Phase of the planning process. This starts the process of identifying the goals, unique needs, and potential challenges of the project. This has entailed meeting with the different stakeholders from Faith that will be working in the new building and renovated space to accomplish their mission. We met with PYC to understand their vision and needs for the preschool; with Worship and Music Board to capture the requirements for the music space, expanded worship area, and audio-visual accommodations; and also, with the staff to discuss office space and workroom area for our volunteers. The architect has captured this information and will be developing estimates of space requirements for the various functions identified in our discussions. They will also evaluate what space can be shared, for example, PYC classrooms can be shared with Sunday School. At the same time, they start to identify functions that need to be adjacent to be efficient and convenient. This phase also starts the early evaluation of cost of the project.

Once the Programming Phase is complete in mid-July, we start the Schematic Design Phase. We will begin to see early concepts of the building layout and will start to narrow down options for the final room plan of the building. We look forward to sharing these options with the congregation when they are developed. This will be the initial vision of the building!

For the Work of Ministry

2026 Central/Southern Illinois Synod Assembly

The Central/Southern Illinois Synod met on June 6 via Zoom, where God dwelled with us as we conducted business and listened to what God is doing across the synod. Our assembly theme comes from Ephesians 4:11-12, “He himself granted that some are apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors and teachers to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ” and reflects the living out of our baptismal calling:

- to live among God’s faithful people
- to hear the word of God and share in the Lord’s supper
- to proclaim the good news of God in Christ through word and deed
- to serve all people, following the example of Jesus
- to strive for justice and peace in all the earth

Guests: Dr. Ryan Cumming, ELCA Director of Theological Ethics, brought us the report of the ELCA and shared a message from Presiding Bishop Yehiel Curry about how we are connected to each other and our communities through Christ. This and other video reports shared with the assembly are available in a playlist on our YouTube channel.

We also welcomed Mr. Mark Stutrud, president and CEO of Lutheran Social Services of Illinois. In addition to his report to the assembly, Mark shared that he is retiring at the end of February 2027. We thank Mark for his leadership and faithfulness and wish him well in retirement.

Business: There were only two elections this year. The assembly re-elected the Rev. Christine McNeal as the synod secretary and elected the Rev. Darla Ann Kratzer, the Rev. Youngshim Mason, and Ms. Kay Wolken to six-year terms on the Consultation Committee.
The assembly also adopted the proposed budget for 2027 and approved three resolutions:

1. establish an endowment fund in support of campus ministry;
2. amend our Constitution and By-Laws based on recommendations adopted by the ELCA Churchwide Assembly; and
3. recognize Marion Medical Mission as a ministry of our synod. The budget and resolutions are available at CSIS-ELCA.org/assembly.

Synod Days: While we gathered online for the business session, in-person activities are still important to our life together as a synod. Worship, fellowship, celebration of anniversaries, and “Spirit Lab” breakout sessions will be held in each conference later this summer and fall as part of Synod Days, which are open to all disciples in our synod and are not tied to Synod Assembly participation.

Faith is part of the West Central Conference:

THANK YOU! A heartfelt thank you goes to St. John's, Springfield, for serving as the host and "broadcast" location for the assembly; to Conrad Mayer, technology coordinator at St. John's, for his time and expertise; and to Kim Geitl, Leslie Gumm, Lois Moorman, and Alex Ruth for volunteering their time to assist the staff.

Next year: The 2027 Synod Assembly returns to an in-person event and will be held June 3-5 at St. John's Lutheran Church in Springfield.
